McAtee-Leake.

Yesterday, Nov. 10th, at 7:30 a. m., at St. John's church, Hunnewell, was the mating of Hunnewell and Monroe City. Rev. Fr. Connolly at High Mass officiating at one of Hunnewell's most pleasing and Monroe's most important weddings.

The happy and interested participants being Miss Lottie F., the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McAtee of Hunnewell, and J. R. Leake, one of Monroe's prosperous business men.

Miss Ruth McAtee, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Charles Pierceall of this city, the groomsmen.

Misses Bess and Lula Hays assisted at the wedding with their sweet violin music.

After the wedding the bridal party came to this city and to the cosy home on East First Street that the groom had furnished for his bride.

May their happy anticipations of a life spent together be realized to the fullest.

Later. At the last moment J. R. and bride decided to go to St. Louis for a few days.

1910 CHAUTAUQUA.

People Enthusiastic—A Good Program—A University For the People.

Representatives of two bureaus supplying talent for Chautauquas were in our city Thursday and found several who were desirous of holding a Chautauqua next year. A meeting of citizens was called to meet at the Council room that evening. This meeting was called to order by Judge Umstattd who nominated Judge Robt. Meriwether for Temporary Chairman. W. J. Rouse was elected temporary secretary.

The question of holding a Chautauqua was discussed from all points and all speakers were in favor of having another Chautauqua.

The one hundred guarantors not having been secured the Chair was instructed to appoint a committee to secure the one hundred names. C. L. Carpenter and B. T. Gentges were appointed and with the assistance of some others secured 101 names. There is plenty of room for your name if you have not signed. Get in and do your part. The meeting Thursday evening adjourned to meet Friday evening.

The meeting Friday evening was called to order by Judge Meriwether who stated that 101 guarantors had been secured.

A permanent organization was then effected by the election of the following officers:

Williams-Deimer.

I love, you love, we love, in fact all the world loves a lover, and that alone would have made the wedding at 6 a. m. Monday, Rev. John Ryan officiating, an interesting one.

George M. Deimer of this city, met pretty Miss Margaret Williams in Carthage. Later she moved to Kansas City where George plead his case so well that the jury, Miss Williams, returned a favorable verdict and Sunday afternoon came to this city where George's sister, Mrs. Joseph Retti of Palmyra, met her and cared for her until next morning and then it was wedding bells. Congratulations.

Young.

The infant daughter of Grafton T. Young and wife died Friday night, Nov. 5th, aged twelve days. Funeral services were held at the family home in this city Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, conducted by Rev. B. D. Weeks, and interment was made in St. Jude's cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Young have the sympathy of the community, as this is the fourth child they have buried.

Special Announcement.

The President of the Century Club especially requests all members to be present at the meeting next Tuesday. An important notice is to be made before the adjournment.

Brenneman.

News from Fredrick, Okla., says: Mrs. Richard Brenneman, formerly of this city, died last Sunday at 6 a. m.

The lady has numerous friends in this city who will regret her passage to the other shore.
